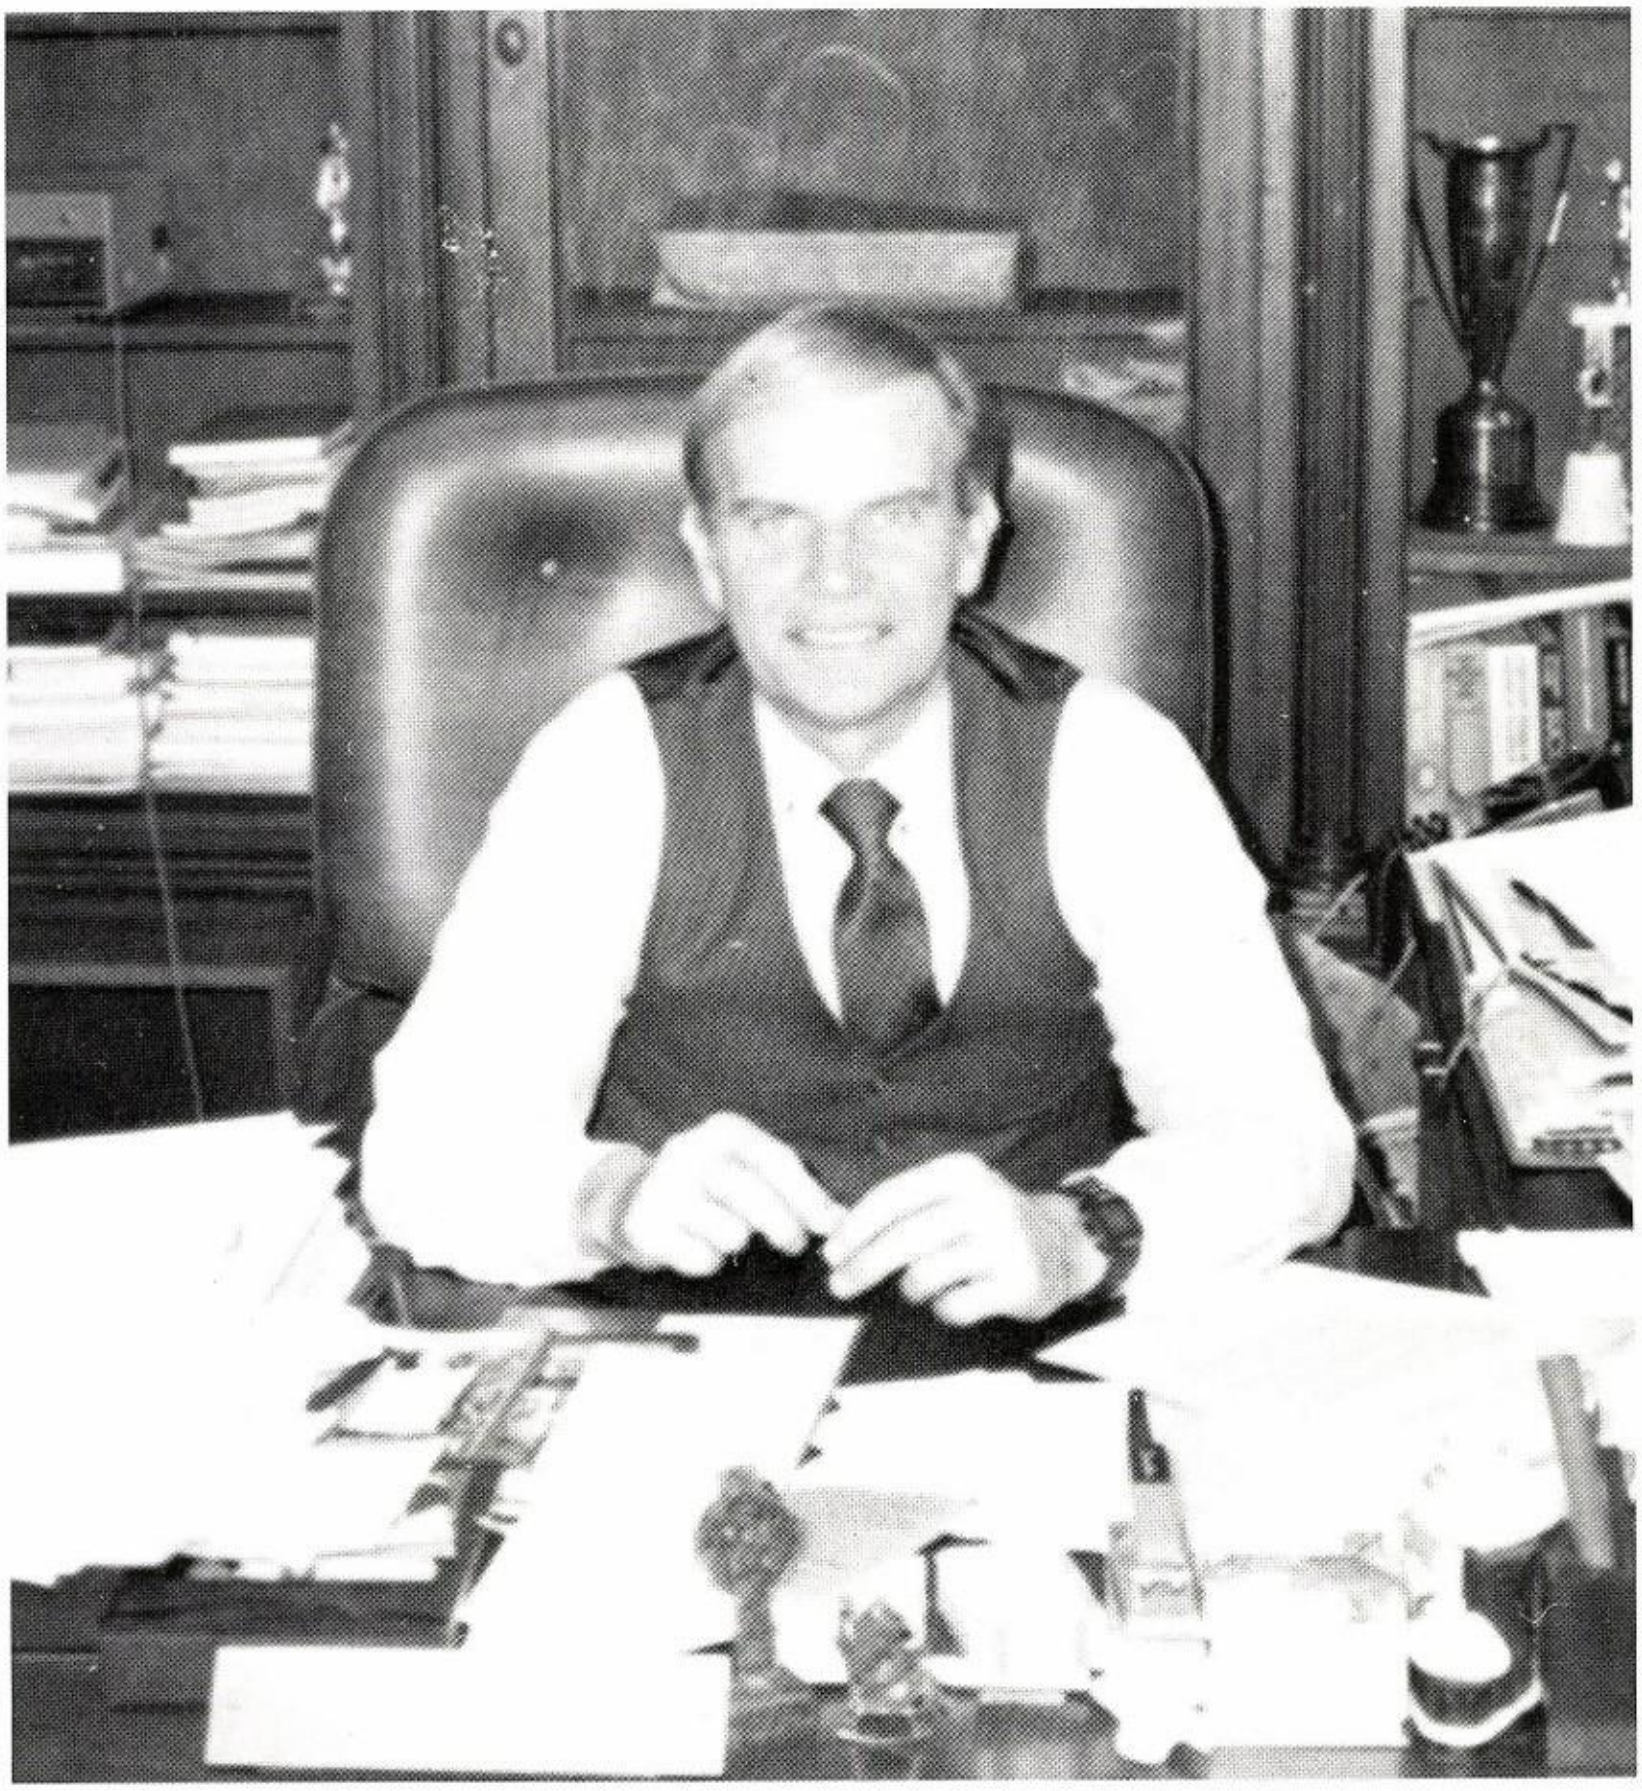
This wonderful book is clear testimony of the activities and accomplishments of the administrators, faculty, and students of our school. Behind it are many horus and days of co-operative work. I salute all of you, especially the faculty advisor, editors, and staff of this marvelous yearbook.

God bless and keep all of you.



Mr. Patrick Finnan

Headmaster

TO OUR GRADUATES:

At this time in your life nothing is truly impossible. You are young, intelligent, ambitious, idealistic and you have people who care for and love you.

You are the best we can do. You are the pinnacle of the efforts of yourself and of so many others.

We are proud of you and we will always be proud of you. Go and do wonderful things on your road through life. Take with you the morality and feelings for justice and truth we have tried to instill in you.

We will not say goodbye, but, "SO LONG, UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN."

In Memory of . . .

Laura Sirgo

Music we heard with you was more than music,
And bread we broke with you was more than bread.
Now that we are without you, all is desolute;
All that was once so beautiful is dead.

Your hands once touched this table and this silver,
And we have seen your fingers hold this glass.
These things do not remember you, beloved:
And yet your touch upon them will not pass.

For it was in our heart that you moved among them,
And blessed them with your hands and with your eyes.
And in our heart that they will remember always:
They knew you once, O beautiful and wise!

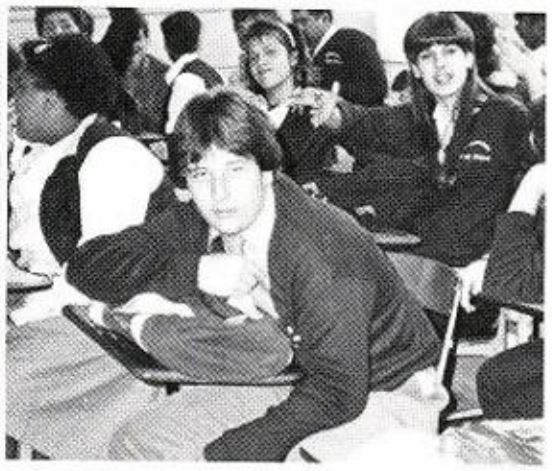
They're Sooo Childish!!!



A very desired man.

Locker supervision.

Men in waiting

No pay, no play.

I thought I told you not to wear my wide ties?

Wait, take my picture.

Students on strike!

I'm never gonna let you go!

Do they know what they're doing?

Do you know where Immaculata High School is?

Where's the game? I thought they played today.

My feet are killing me!!

Yes, boys and girls, Immaculata is an equal opportunity school!

You expect me to eat this?

Oh, my horoscope looks good for today!

Can you guess who is Popeye and who is Olive Oil?

Walking tall.

I thought they said not to play dirty until the second half of the game.

Hold this while I take a nap . . .

Where's our homeroom?

The yearbook head.

Camera shy, aren't they?

College rejects.

Love is blind!!

He is so cute!!

I know, wrong staircase.

Tribal initiation; Kips Bay Braves . . .

This is my kid!

Hey, was that the bell?

I just took my first picture . . .

Oh, that cover girl face!!

I thought we had school today.

Good luck class of '85, so long Nadine see ya whenever. Nice knowing you Ann, stay sweet and make the world your own. Love, Monica and Bertha Bee

The 3 years I have been in this school were okay! But the last year was the most exciting, especially the girls at I.H.S. I hope that next year's seniors make some changes in this school; I'd just like to say take care and I'll see you around. Harry O.

In the 3 years I've been in this school, the last year was the best. The only things I ever really liked in this school were the few fine girls and my friends. Israel Vazquez

This is the last year we will be together. Remember that you will always be in my heart. I love you, Soraya, Melissa, Marylin, Tracy J., and Susan. Keep in touch. To my sisters Marisa and Valencia, Chill out. To the cash crew, keep on bugging out. Lee Ski

Good-bye Immaculata. It's been 4 great years with all my wonderful friends. Thanks to my parents especially. Also, very special thanks to my girlfriend Ann Corrigan, for the confidence and your sweetness. I will not miss you. Here I come: U.S. Army. Bobby S.

So long, it has been an enjoyable three years with my best friends, especially: David L. Wallace, Big Phil, David, Manny, Lisa, Janira, Nancy, Roberta, Nilda, Judy, Sami, Rhonda and Rachel. I wish that all of you will be successful and happy. I had enjoyed the best years of my life with all of you, the memories will always be with me and I hope with you too, if I missed any of you, I don't have enough space, but this goes for you too. Your loving friend, Allen

Dear Linda and Cathy: You girls have been very special and we'll always remember you two by our "wrestling foursome" and game of "dare." You girls better keep in touch and let us know when you are in town. Hint!! Desiring you, Steve and John

Class of '85 stay alive — it's coming from the heart breakers and it ain't no jive: sunshine, sweety love, shorty slim-sky, Cee-Cee, Twilight and Grumpy.

Congratulations: Good luck to your future. Hope you have successful life in fulfilling your dreams.

Manny — I'm not going to be too sentimental about this because I know that I'm still going to see you. But I really will miss you. Good luck! Ritz

Juan — It was great being with you! Good luck in college, I know you'll make it! Mahal Kita! Ritz

To all those beautiful girls in this school: You missed the macho guy of the century, the G "Q" you guessed it (V.V.) "Stalin of the KGB."

Abidin: Thanks for the best school year ever. I knew our relationship was good but not so special. I love you now and always. Your sweetheart forever.
